

Ashburnham Historical Society

is pleased to offer property owners a House Plaque for their home or business. We hope these plaques will promote pride of ownership and distinction. The plaques do not impose restrictions on properties. Date and name plaques have long expressed prominence in many communities.

We are offering this opportunity to not only the historic homes and businesses in Ashburnham, but also to home and business owners who wish to define their property.

Complete the Ashburnham House Plaque Application: information of your property should include the history of your home/property (Ashburnham Historical Society is happy to assist); i.e. date of construction, circa, original owner, occupation of the original owner (or subsequent owners), name of the building, name of the present owner, etc., payment to the Ashburnham Historical Society ($100, includes 2021 annual membership).
